I prying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. Let point of solvency and reliability and homorable dealing they have but five equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past tenches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and onesided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient. to reinsure their custanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount; and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with canfidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutnal Companies, and a carlatiny given instead of a minortainy. All losses promptly adjusted and paid. CAPITAL AND SURBLUS, - -

DAILY GAZETTE.

STATEMENT OF CAPT. MALLOTT .- D. M. Mallott, master of the schooner Augusta, gives the following version of the catastroohe in his protest made Saturday morning: The Augusta took on a cargo of lumber about three miles below Port Huron in the St. Clair river, and sailed thence about four o'clock P. M., of the first of September .-That nothing material "occurred during the voyage until the evening of the 7th of September, the vessel then being off Milwan-kee, about 72 o'clock, with wind about N. E. a strong breeze, the vessel heading S. by E.; with all sail set. At 2 o'clock A. M. of the 8th, was off Wankegan, wind in the same direction; and fresh, about 4 or 5 miles off shore, weather cloudy, moon up, not very dark; our lights all right and in order; vessel on same course. At about 3 o'clock took a heavy squall from the north, and vessel broached to. Lowered away fore and mainsail about half way, took in jibs, and were running under these sails when we dis-covered a steamer's lights, both red and bright, supposed to be from a quarter, to a half mile distant, and steering between north and northeast. Raining very hard. We kept our vessel on her course E. by S. until we saw a collision was probable, when we put helm hard up. Struck the steamer in about two or three minutes, just abaft the paddle box on her port side. The steamer kept on her course; engine in full motion, heading the Augusta around north alongside of the steamer. Got separated from the steamer in about a minute, the Augusta fell off into the troughs of the sea. All our head gear, jib boom, staunches, etc., were carried away. Took in all sail, and cleared away an anchor, supposing the vessel would fill. Lost sight of the steam. er within five minutes after the collision. After clearing up the wreck, got up forestay-sail, (finding the vessel was not leaking) and made efforts to get the vessel before the wind and save the masts, as all the head stays were gone, except one forestay, but was obliged to hoist a part of the foresail, when we succeeded in getting before the wind and stood in for the land. When with in about three miles, stood down along the hore and arrived off Chicago harbor about do'clock a. M., September 8.

RULES FOR HEALTH .- A la Dr. Hall .lever go to bed with your feet sticking out of the window, particularly when it is rain ing or freezing.

More than three pig's feet and a mince pie eaten at midnight, will not generally cause the consumer to dream of hours, paradise, accommodating bankers, and other good things; at least they are not upt to do

Never stand in the rain barrel all night. It cheeks perspiration, and spoils rain water or washing purposes. Never spank your children with a hand saw, or box their ears with the sharp edge of a hatchet, as it is apt to affect the brain.

To enlarge the muscles of the arms and legs, climbing up and down the climbing, —especially if the house is a four storied one—three or four times before breakfast, is a cheap exercise, and gives a voracious appetite.

Ear-ache in children is a common and rexations complaint. To cure it at once, bore a hole in the tympanum with a gimlet, and pour in oil and things. If the child keeps on crying, bore it all the way to the other ear. Corns may be easily cared. The most torturing corn can be extirpated at once as Take a sharp knife and find the joint of the too whereupon the corn resides insert the knife in the articulation, pry off the toe and throw it away. It will never return again, unless your dog brings it back to you in his mouth. (Patent applied for.) The habit of drinking can be cured by giving the drinkers all the liquor they want to drink all the time. We know of two in our experience who were cured in three weeks. One immed out of a fourth story window and ran a curbstone into his head The other didn't get up one morning, and has now a universal curbstone growing over his head in the graveyard. PROGRESS OF CONFUSION. -The confusion of the democracy is progressing very satisfactorily. The Green state committee on Thursday, intimated to Mr. Benjamin Wood, who had been detailed by the Dean committee to attend to the Breckinridgers, he being an adept in matters of policy, that they were only waiting to be asked, and would hold a meeting yesterday for that purpose. They did meet, and Mr. Wood asked them (the Green men) for ten names on the electoral ticket, and for the governor and lieut. Wood was dickering with them trying to get them to take a different combination in his scheme. At 11 P. M., the Green committee were so far roped in by him as to throw their best and strongest man, Jas. T. Brady, overboard, and to consent to take the two lowest names on the state ticket. They were then begging for their ten electors. They should have them. It would be cruelty to animals in Mr. Wood, not to allow them to nominate as many candidates for electors, as the W. Hunt clique was al lowed to nominate. The transaction will be completed to day.—N. Y. Tribane, 8th.

THIRVING .- A German woman left be house and her little boy about four years old in it for a short time. The little boy told her upon her return home that a little girl came in there while she was gone, and took the bag of money and carried it away. The woman traced the matter up and charged the little girl with the crime, but it was stoutly denied. The woman was about making a complaint to have the little girl arrested, but concinded to wait until her husband came home. The next morning, upon opening the door, the bag of money was found upon the threshold, all safe, with a note, saying, "I am sorry I took it."— **IMIR above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their reat merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but five equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best rectifies in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valuelees. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital livice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a carainty given instead of an uncertainty. Life Leaven of Companies CAPITAL AND SURILUS, - $450,000

DAILY GAZETTE.

STATEMENT OF CAPT. MALLOTT .- D. M. Mallott, master of the schooner Augusta. gives the following version of the catastrophe in his protest made Saturday morning: The Augusta took on a cargo of lumber about three miles below Port Huron in the St. Clair river, and sailed thence about four o'clock P. M., of the first of September .-That nothing material occurred during the voyage until the evening of the 7th of September, the vessel then being off Milwaukee, about 7½ o'clock, with wind about N. E. a strong breeze, the vessel heading S. by E., with all sail set. At 2 o'clock A. M. of the 8th, was off Waukegan, wind in the same direction, and fresh, about 4 or 5 miles off shore, weather cloudy, moon up, not very dark; our lights all right and in order; vessel on same course. At about 3 o'clock took a heavy squali from the north, and vessel broached to. Lowered away fore and mainsail about half way, took in jibs, and were running under these sails when we discovered a steamer's lights, both red and bright, supposed to be from a quarter to a half mile distant, and steering between north and northeast. Raining very hard. We kept our vessel on her course E. by S. until we saw a collision was probable, when we put helm hard up. Struck the steamer in about two or three minutes, just abast the paddle box on her port side. The steamer kept on her course; engine in full motion, heading the Augusta around north alongside of the steamer. Got separated from the steamer in about a minute, when he Augusta fell off into the troughs of the sea. All our head gear, jib boom, stannebes, etc., were carried away, Took in all sail, and cleared away an anchor, supposing the vessel would fill. Lost sight of the steamer within five minutes after the collision. After clearing up the wreck, got up forestay sail, (finding the vessel was not leaking) and made efforts to get the vessel before the wind and save the masts, as all the head stays were gone, except one forestay, but was obliged to hoist a part of the foresail, when we succeeded in getting before the wind and stood in for the land. When within about three miles, stood down along the shore and arrived off Chicago harbor about 7½ o'clock a. m., September 8, RULES FOR HEALTH, -A la Dr. Hall,-

Never go to bed with your feet sticking out of the window, particularly when it is rain ing or freezing.

More than three pig's feet and a mince pie eaten at midnight, will not generally cause the consumer to dream of houris, paradise, accommodating bankers, and other good things; at least they are not apt to do Never stand in the rain barrel all night.

It cheeks perspiration, and spoils rain water for washing purposes.

Never spank your children with a hand, saw, or box their ears with the sharp edge of a hatchet, as it is apt to affect the brain. To enlarge the muscles of the arms and legs, climbing up and down the chimney, —especially if the house is a four-storied one—three or four times before breakfast, one—three or four times before breakfast, is a cheap exercise, and gives a voracious appetite.

Enrache in children is a common and vexatious complaint. To cure it at once, bore a hole in the tympanum with a gimlet, and pour in oil and things. If the child cago, and at the deput, foot Lake street.

It 3. Spaulbing.

R. N. RICE, keeps on crying, bore it all the way to the other ear. Corns may be easily cured. The most torturing corn can be extirpated at once as follows: Take a sharp knife and find the joint of the toe whereupon the corn resides -insert the knife in the articulation, pry off the toe and throw it away. It will never return again, unless your dog brings it back to you in his mouth. (Patent applied for.) The habit of drinking can be cared by giving the drinkers all the liquor they want to drink all the time. We know of two in our experience who were cured in three weeks. One jumped out of a fourth story window and ran a curbstone into his head The other didn't get up one morning, and has now a universal curbstone growing over his head in the graveyard.

PROGRESS OF CONFUSION .-- The confusion of the democracy is progressing very satisfactorily. The Green state committee on Thursday, intimated to Mr. Benjamin Wood who had been detailed by the Dean committee to attend to the Breckinridgers, he being an adept in matters of policy, that they were only waiting to be asked, and would hold a meeting yesterday for that purpose. They did meet, and Mr. Wood asked them They did meet, and Mr. Wood asked them (the Green men) for ten names on the electoral ticket, and for the governor and lieut. governor. Until a late hour last evening, Wood was dickering with them, trying to get them to take a different combination in his scheme. At 11 P. M., the Green committee were so far roped in by him as to throw their best and strongest man, Jas. T. Brady, overboard, and to consent to take Brady, overboard, and to consent to take the two lowest names on the state ticket.-They were then begging for their ten electors. They should have them. It would be cruelty to animals in Mr. Wood, not to allow them to nominate as many candidates for electors, as the W. Hunt clique was al lowed to nominate. The transaction will be completed to-day .- N. Y. Tribune, 8th. THIEVING .- A German woman left her house and her little boy about four years old in it for a short time. The little boy told her upon her return home that a little girl came in there while she was gone, and took the bag of money and carried it away. The woman traced the matter up and charged the little girl with the crime, but it was stoutly denied. The woman was about making a complaint to have the little girl arrested, but concluded to wait until husband came home. The next morning, upon opening the door, the bag of money was found upon the threshold, all safe, with a note, saying, "I am sorry I took it." Columbus (Wis.) Journal.

A Good Use -The wigwam at Chicago, where Lincoln was nominated is now being. used for a mechanics' exhibition .- Journal of Commerce.

Yes, a very appropriate use. The tri-umple of free labor may well be shown in a structure erected to hold the friends of free labor, where they convened to nominate their candidate for the presidency.—Providence Journal.

Douglas vs. Douglas and the Missonri Compromise.

From Donglas' Speech in Springfield, Ill., 1850.

The Missouri Compromise had its origin in the hearts of all partiotic men who desired to preserve and perpetuate the blessings of our glorious Union-on origin akin to that of the constitution of the United States, conceived in the same spirit of fraternal affection, and calculated to remove forever the only denger which threatens at some distant day, to sever the social bond of Union.—All the evidences of public opinion at that day seem to indicate that this compromise had become canonized in the hearts of the American people as a sacred thing, which me rublies hand would ever be reckless enough to distarts." If they do not, they certainly ought to do so. The society is emphatically their institution, and it has won its high renown and dispensed its benefits heretofore through the support and approbation rendered by

We are well aware that for the last two or three years the society has labored under difficulties arrising from a deficient treasury, but this fact so far from discouraging any the zeal and labors of its real friends. The present year is unparalleled in a most abundant harvest; the soil has been almost sin. and disastrously over many, has broken and an unclouded sun now beams upon all.-Every circumstance is favorable to a display of the wealth and products of the county never before witnessed. It needs only the disposition to make the coming fair the best ever known in a county which stands, without a rival, among the counties of a state more bountifully blessed than any other in the Great West. The simple question is-What will each man do, and do it for himself, not depending upon his neighbor. The officers of the society cannot, alone, make a good fair; the newspaper cannot it. To make such a fair as Rock county of those who set out, were of that national ought to have, requires a united effort; every man who bolds back, impairs its character; and if too many refuse their efforts, a general failure is the result.

An excellent communication in relation to this fair, signed "Labor," will be found in another column, and we ask a careful attention to it. Farmers and Mechanics of Rock county, your own interests will be promoted by restoring your society to its former pecuniary standing, and making its fairs progressive in excellence and henefits.

Correspondence of the Janesville Gazette. WAUPUN, Sept. 11th, 1860. Editors of the Gazette-

Last Saturday was to be a great time among the "unterrified" democracy at this place. "Our Larrabee" was to speak here at 2 o'clock, the whippersin were straining every nerve to get up a large and enthusiastic meeting. At the appointed time the meeting was called to order; there were fifty-seven persons present, all told; out of that number fifteen were republicans and ten boys. The "Little Joker" saw it was a failure, but never at a loss to creep out, and no hole too small for him to get through, he informed his audience that he had got right infidelity in comparison with the in a telegraphic despatch announcing that a fatuation of the followers of the yet moth sad accident had occurred on the lake that erless candidate for the presidency. morning. He said it was no time for making a political speech-he did not think it would be proper for him to do so, and, feeling as he did, he could not make a speech. He would, therefore, offer a resolution, and hoped the meeting would concur in it-

Resolved, That in view of the dreadful calamity which has fallen in our midst, and as a mark of respect and sympathy with the surviving friends, this meeting do adjourn.

Let us look at the "Little Joker's" sympathy. The same evening he had an appointment to speak at Fox Lake; he went there and found the meeting a little larger, and was "betrayed" into a speech four hours long. He forgot his sympathy and made one of his great political harangues. "What hypocrisy."

I must not forget to tell you that the republicans in this vicinity are up and dressed, and are fully determined to redeem the 3d congressional district. Last Saturday the wide-awake club of this place received an invitation to visit Burnett Corners, about ten miles distant, and on acceptance of the invitation, that evening about forty (half the club) got ready and started under command sional Globe, part 2, page 1074, February

We got there 17, that Mr. Wade moved to postpone prior of Capt. Heg for the corners. We got there about 8 o'clock and were conducted to the meeting, and enthusiastically greeted with three cheers from the Beaver Dam wideawakes. After we get seated and order was restored, the audience was treated to short but telling speeches from the Hon. A. A. Wilson, one of the republican electors of our sister state of Minnesota, who made an able and eloquent address; he was followed by Judge Sloan, our noble standard bearer in this district, in a masterly style of commanding eloquence. Then followed the able speeches of the Hon. C. H. Billinghurst and Major Heg, all of which were well received and loudly applauded.

About half past 10 o'clock the meeting adjourned with three rousing cheers for Lincoln, Hamlin and Sloan, The wideawakes then paraded the streets with lighted torches till after 11 o'clock, when they started for home, every man feeling fully determined to do all he could to redeem the ricultural Society and Mechanics' Institute | third congressional district. I never attendwill be held in this city on Tuesday, Wednes- ed a more enthusiastic impromptu gatherday and Thursday next. We suppose the ing of the people; the meeting house was

> We hear that it is asserted about our streets that the Chicago Tribune in giving a report of the loss of the Lady Elgin asserted that the excursionists were principally democrats and Irishmen, and spoke disparagingly of the character of that fearful calamity on that account. To show our citizens precisely what the Tribune did say, we annex all that relates to the character or politics of those who were so suddenly call- stead. The men who have taken it under ed to meet an appalling death:

OCCASION OF THE EXCURSION.—The Unpresent or future effort, ought to increase ion Guards of Milwaukee, not long since the zeal and labors of its real friends. The were disarmed and disbanded by the Governor of the state for some action held to be in derogation of the sovereignty of Wiscon-We do not remember the precise cause; marvelously prolific, and the cloud which but believe it to have been partly politicalthree years ago settled ominously over all a series of resolutions in relation to the con. who have the control of the matter have flict between Wisconsin and the United States, in the Booth case, in which the right of the Governor to order them out for the enforcement of the decisions of Wisconsin courts, was denied. After the disarming, they continued their organization and bought arms on their private account. In doing this, they had in curred a considerable debt, and to pay this off by an excursion, the profits of which were to go to the company, was the main object in view. The captain of the Guards was a candidate for treasurer in Milwaukee and to get his friends together on the trip and make strength for himself, was a prominent though not leading idea. Hence most of the excursionists were of the democratic party; hence, as the Guards were an Irish do it; one or two men in a town cannot do company, it happens that a large majority ty. This explanation is necessary to account for the preponderence of Irish names in the lists of "lost" and "saved" printed herewith. Any allusic to politics in this calamity was unnecessary and out of place, but we fail to see in the allusion any such spirit as is charged upon the Tribune. If we did, we should denounce the offence as heartily as those who are charging it upon the Tribune. We are not prepared to believe human nature is so depraved as to attempt to find in the loss of two or three hundred human beings, friends as well as strangers, embracing a large number of women and children, and involving every social and house hold relation, any relief in the political character of the ill-fated victims; or if such depravity exists, that the possessor is reckless enough to give publicity to it.

SUMMER AT FREEPORT.-It is authoritatively stated that Hon. Charles Summer will address the people of Freeport some time during the present month; the exact time to be hereafter designated.

"If democrats and national men do their duty, Douglas will certainly beat Lincoln in the free states. His prospects are alto gether the best in New York, Pennsylvania Indiana, Rhode Island, Illinois, Wisconsin New Jersey, California and Oregon, and with a reasonable effort he will sweep Iowa, Minnesota, Ohio and Connecticut." Can audacity go farther? The faith of the followers of Mahomet sinks into down-

From the Mineral Point Tribune. Mr. Hamlin and the Homestead.

We have noticed on several occasions the assertion in the Home Intelligencer that Mr. Hamlin was opposed to the homestead hill, and on one occasion, the Intelligences said that almost the last vote Mr. Hamlin cast in the United States senate was against that bill. We knew at the time that the statement of the Intelligencer was false, for we happened to be in the senate chamber on one occasion when Mr. Hamlin defined his position on that bill—opposing the sen-ate bill and supporting that of the house, but we have preferred to let the matter rest until we could refer directly to the records to expose the falsahood, from which we now propose to show not only how Mr. Hamlin did vote, but how Mr. Douglas did'nt vote on that measure.

The reader will bear in mind that the house bill was far more liberal to the settler than that of the senate—the former making liberal provisions for giving to actual set-tlers homesteads from the public domain, while the latter contained provisions that rendered it far less beneficial to the poor man, and almost equivalent to no home-stead bill at all.

We find in the appendix to the Congresorders, and take up the house homestead bill. On this motion Mr. Hamlin voted Yea; Mr. Douglas did not vote at all!

On the same day (page 1076) on a motion to keep the homestead bill before the senate, Mr. Hamlin voted yea; but where was Douglas? Again, on the same page, on motion to discuss the consular and diplomatic bill, instead of the homestead, Mr. Hamlin voted nay; Douglas not voting.

On page 1143, is recorded a motion to take up the homstead bill, when Mr. Hamlin voted yea; Douglas did not vote. On the 25th of February, (page 1292) Mr. Doolittle of Wisconsin, moved to postpone the bill for the acquisition of Cuba, and take up the homestead bill. On this motion Mr. Hamlin voted yea, and Mr. Douglas voted nay, showing that the latter preferred "Niggers for the Niggerless" to Land to the Landless."

April 3d. (page 1608) on motion to post-pone the senate hill and take up that of the house, Mr. Hamlin voted year, but no vote from Mr. Douglas. April 5th, (page 1560) on motion to postpone the homestead bill for the Indian apropriation bill, Mr. Hamlin voted nay. May 10th, (page 2042) on a motion to substitute the house homestead bill for that of the senate, Mr. Hamlin voted yea, and defined his position in favor of the house bill, and against that of the senate, as fol-

"I am very much in the same situation with the senator from Massachusetts, with this distinction: I am against the bill and am going to vote against it-I am going to leave a record consistent with my judgment. I think the bill is wrong. I do not think there would be much harm in worshipping it, for I do not think it bears any similitude to anything above the earth or beneath the skies that you can call a hometheir peculiar care, are the enemics of the homestead principle, and they propose to pass it. I am perfectly willing they should do so; but they tell us, and they tell us frankly, that it is not a homestead bill, and it is not. Now, sir, it being no homestead bill, I will not vote for it. I voted to substitute the house bill for this bill; but those are things in that bill for which I cannot flour unchanged. Wheat market without vote. There are things that ought to go material change, and the export demand is into it to make it justifiable, to enable me to give it my vote. For these reasons, I shall vote against it."

And he did vote against it, while those republicans who voted for it did so under

May 29th, (page 2420) on a motion to disagree with the house on the homestead Mr. Hamlin voted nay—Douglas did not votë.

On the final vote, that of passing the compromise bill over the president's veto, Mr. Hamlin voted yea, but Douglas did not vote. He "didn't care whether it was voted up or voted down.

This is the true history of Mr. Hamlin's position on the homestead bill, and yet we have no doubt the Intelligencer will still persist in charging him with opposing it. For want of other reasons for opposing the republican nominees, falsehoods are the main arguments.

A RESTAURANT CAR.—This is an age of nventions and mechanical improvements. One of the latest phases of American civilization has shown itself in the establishment of sleeping cars on all the great railroads of the country. The smoking car has long been a recognized institution. Something beyond all this has just been commenced on the line of travel between Harrisburgh and New York, via. Reading, Allentown, and Easton. A restaurant car is attached to each through train, where travelers may procure things to eat and drink, even more comfortably than they could at the stations along the road.

DR. DAVIS AND THE LA CROSSE RAIL-ROAD.—We understand that the long pro-tracted difficulty between Hon. M. M. Davis and the La Crosse railroad company has at last been settled by the payment by the com-pany of the amount awarded by the court. The company found it impossible to run their road in defiance of the injunction of the court and the will of the people, and when they could fight no longer, they didwhat they should have done years ago-paid up. Yes, indeed, we have heard of him—the irony is excellent—and of Dr. Johnson's growl about "the frightful interval between the seed and the timber."-Still, we say, plant trees. They who plant at once, instead of waisting their breath in selfish complaints of the shortness of life, find luxuriant foliage waving over them much sooner than they expected. But, whether you live to see the maturity of your trees or not, be benevolent enough to plant for posterity. Transmit to your children the inheritance of rural beauty received from your fathers, greatly augmented. By all means plant, and plant well, and the result will overpay the labor. And let not your work end with planting. Feed your trees from year to year with generous food, and guard them from injury. And, in the words slightly altered) of an old planter: "What joy may you have in seeing the success of your labors while you live, and in leaving behind you, to your heirs and successors, work that, many years after your death, shall record your love to your country! And the rather, when you consider to what length of time your work is like to last." If you have country homes to embellish, be content with simplicity. Remember that a great estab-lishment is a great care, and that the proprietor is apt to become a slave to it. Let your dwelling places be marked with what painters call "repose." Make them the abodes of comfort and refined enjoyment, places which will always afford you agree able occupation, but not oppress you with care. -North American Review.

THE BOHEMIAN'S NEWS .- The news by the Bohemiam is, politically, of great importance. If the intelligence may be relied n, the end of that rotten old Bourbon dy nasty in Naples is near an end, and the Neapolitan people, for ages oppressed and ridden by royalty and aristocracy, will be restored to their rights. That Garibaldi and his heroic army, aided and comforted by the Neapolitans themselves, are the in-struments in the hands of Providence by whom this great deliverance will be effected, who that is read up in recent European events can doubt? He is the hero of this age, towering above nobles, princes and monarchs, like the dome of St. Peters above the hovels that lie at its base .- Chicago Tribune.

ENGLISH AND FRENCH ACADEMY Located at Sauk City, Wisconsin, H. J. TURNER, A. M., PRINCIPAL 5th Academic Year.

Sth Academic Year.

This institution is strictly a Family Bearding School, and is under the immediate supervision of Prof. Turners, formerly of Utica, N.Y. Prof. Turner's long experience as a teacher, the beautiful and ample playgrounds attached to his residence and Academy, and their healthful position, recommend them to the parents who should wish to confide their children to the care of Prof. Turner, who will superintend the studies of the Institution, and give his particular attention to the modern languages. The French, being the language of the family, will be the language of the Institution,—German and Spanish are also written and spoken. Prof. Turner will guarantee that, independent of their other studies, his pupils will, at the close of the sholastic, year, speak and write the French language. When pupils are far enough advanced in French, instruction will be given in Spanish or Italian.

Mrs. Turner will devote her attention to the Family Department; her kindness and long exderience qualily her well to discharge the difficult duties of that station, and she will spars no efforts to secure the comfort of all confided to her care.

The next term of the Institution commences the first day of October. For circulars, or further particulars, address, Septidawdw

YOUNG AMERICA FOREVER!

"Come one, come all, this Rock shall fly From its firm base, as soon as I."

SUCH were the stiring words of James Fitz James to the bold chiefmin, Rhoderick Dhu, in the Mountain Passes of Scotland, and now

MOSES HARSH, Proprietor of the Original Young America CLOTHING HOUSE,

Petty Slop Shops

Young America Clothing House who is always on hand Ready and Willing to exhibit has held for the last

EIGHT YEARS and above all, the Cheapest Establishment of its kind in the state. That during that time other Clothing Stores have attempted to compute with it in this city, and one after another have busted. The pro-

Oldest Clothing House in the City eels that he has now the right to say it is as firmly fix-al as a rock and as immovable as the everlasting bills. He knows the truth of what he says. The People of Rock County re his witnesses. They will not lie; nor is he under the necessity of attempting to enforce A BOGUS LAW upon them, to get them to purchase their Original Young America Clothing House does not claim that virtue. He is ready to 60 what he promises, The PECLE KNOV in, and the thousands who have purchased, for years, their Clothing from him, from the best quality of Hats and Caps wn to Draws and Socks, never would know what the

"EXTRAVAGANT PRICES," meant, were they not to stray accidentally into other stablishments pretending to compete with him. His Merchant Tailoring Department is unsurpassed, and his accomplished cutter, MR. A. B. MC'LEAN who is at the head of it, is a gentleman of long experience and most excellent taste; the well dressed gentle men of this city are walking witnesses of his conceder skill. Come then, one and all, if you want

The above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. Let point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreclated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than rational, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confluence to the public for literal patronage.

Politics issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutnal Companies, and a certainty given instead of an unicertainty. All losses prompily adjusted and paid. CAPITAL AND SUBBLUS, - - $450,000

STATEMENT OF CAPT. MALLOTT .- D. M. Mallott, master of the schooner Augusta, gives the following version of the catastrophe in his protest made Saturday morning: The Augusta took on a cargo of lumber about three miles below Port Haron in the St. Clair river, and sailed thence about four o'clock P. M., of the first of September.-That nothing niaterial occurred during the voyage until the evening of the 7th of September, the vessel then being off Milwaukee, about 7½ o'clock, with wind about N. E. a strong breeze, the vessel heading S. by E., with all sail set. At 2 o'clock A. M. of the 8th, was off Waukegan, wind in the same direction, and fresh, about 4 or 5 miles off shore, weather cloudy, moon up, not very dark; our lights all right and in order; vessel on same course. At about 3 c'clock took a heavy squall from the north, and vessel broached to. Lowered away fore and mainsail about half way, took in jibs, and were running under these sails when we'discovered a steamer's lights, both red and right, supposed to be from a quarter to a ialf mile distant, and steering between north and northeast. Raining very hard. We kept our vessel on her course E. by S. antil we saw a collision was probable, when we put helm hard up. Struck the steamer in about two or three minutes, just abaft the paddle box on her port side. The steamer kept on her course; engine in full motion, heading the Augusta around north alongside of the steamer. Got separated from the steamer in about a minute, when the Augusta fell off into the troughs of the sen. All our head gear, jib boom, staunches, etc., were carried away, Took in all sail, and cleared away an anchor, supposing the vessel would fill. Lost sight of the steamer within five minutes after the collision. After clearing up the wreck, got up forestay. sail, (finding the vessel was not leaking) and made efforts to get the vessel before the wind and save the masts, as all the head stays were gone, except one forestay, but was obliged to hoist a part of the foresail, when we succeeded in getting before the wind and stood in for the land. When within about three miles, stood down along the shore and arrived off Chicago harbor about

RULES FOR HEALTH, -A la Dr. Hall,-Never go to bed with your feet sticking out of the window, particularly when it is raining or freezing.

72 o'clock A. M., September 8.

More than three pig's feet and a mince pie eaten at midnight, will not generally cause the consumer to dream of houris, paradiso, accommodating bankers, and other good things; at least they are not upt to do Never stand in the rain barrel all night. It checks perspiration, and spoils rain water or washing purposes. Never spank your children with a hand! saw, or box their ears with the sharp edge of a hatchet, as it is apt to affect the brain. To enlarge the muscles of the arms and legs, climbing up and down the chimney, —especially if the house is a four-storied one—three or four times before breakfast. is a cheap exercise, and gives a vorncious appetite. Ear-ache in children is a common and rexatious complaint. To care it at once, bore a hole in the tympanum with a gimlet, and pour in oil and things. If the child keeps on crying, bore it all the way to the other ear. Corns may be easily cared. The most torturing corn can be extirpated at once as follows: Take a sharp knife and find the joint of the toe whereupon the corn resides insert the kuife in the articulation, pry off the toe and throw it away. It will never return again, unless your dog brings it back to you in his mouth. (Patent applied for.)

The habit of drinking can be cured by giving the drinkers all the liquor they want to drink all the time. We know of two in our experience who were cured in three weeks. One jumped out of a fourth story window and ran a curbstone into his head.

The other didn't get up one morning, and has now a universal curbstone growing over his head in the graveyard. PROGRESS OF CONFUSION,-The confusion of the democracy is progressing very satisfactorily. The Green state committee on Thursday, intimated to Mr. Benjamin Wood, who had been detailed by the Dean committee to attend to the Breckinridgers, he being an adept in matters of policy, that they were only waiting to be asked, and would hold a meeting yesterday for that purpose. They did meet, and Mr. Wood asked them (the Green men) for ten names on the electoral ticket, and for the governor and lieut. governor. Until a late hour last evening, Vood was dickering with them trying to get them to take a different combination in his scheme. At 11 P. M., the Green com-mittee were so far roped in by him as to

Brady, overboard, and to consent to take the two lowest names on the state ticket .-They were then begging for their ten elec-tors. They should have them. It would be cruelty to animals in Mr. Wood, not to allow them to nominate as many candidates for electors, as the W. Hunt clique was al lowed to nominate. The transaction will be completed to-day.—N. Y. Tribine, 8th. THIEVING .- A German woman left ber house and her little boy about four years old in it for a short time. The little boy told her upon her return home that a little girl came in there while she was gone, and took the bag of money and carried it away. The woman traced the matter up and charged the little girl with the crime, but it was stoutly denied. The woman was about making a complaint to have the little girl arrested, but concluded to wait until her husband came home. The next morning, upon opening the door, the bag of money was found upon the threshold, all safe, with a note, saying, "I am sorry I took it."---- Columbus (Wis.) Journal.

by the proper town committees. The question of a new apportionment to correct the inequalities of former representations was discussed by the committee; but in view of the difficulty of making any changes without full returns of the census just is deemed advisable to adopt the apportionment of the last convention as likely to lead to less complaint than a partial change or an entire change made without the necessary information.

Allow me to close with an incident-a republican would say, an accident: As I rode up from the fair grounds yesterday, in a promisenous crowd, a gentleman desired a political count. It resulted 21 for Doug las. 4 for Lincoln. 2 for Breckinridge. As I stepped from the omnibus to day, the first drunken man I have seen on the streets during the fair, was shouting at the top of his voice for Lincoln, the "rail-splitter."

There were probably several other "promiscnous" crowds at the horse show where Donglasism and democracy predominated-Such a vote is very apt to be taken and published where a purely accidental (!) assem- and early, all seeming auxious for a full share of the blage favors a result in accordance with the wheat at some price. The mills were nearly all repre-

As to the other "incident," the correspondent of the Herald must have been a samples. Shippers also took held freely, and a good scales to have seen only one drunken man deal want to warehouses, before despatches were received. during the fair, and that man hurraling for Lincoln. We saw a good deal of enthusiasm for Douglas that was inspired by the same influence which induced the outbreak for the "rail-splitter."

We have found it! You will ask what have we found? If you had seen us, last evening, hipity hopitying along the side-walk on Milwankee street, smoothing down the toe of our boot, and searching in the place where our big toe ought to be, you would imagine that we "had struck a stump!" Not so, however; 'twas nothing more than a "gas fixture" sticking up a little less than a foot, ch our boot came in contact with. Although the toe was driven back almost to the heel, we didn't mind the hurt; all we cared for was the boot! So that you may be on your guard, and not lose a boot or shoe, we would inform our readers that the said "fixture" is right in front of Tallman's new block-in the place where the SIDEWALK ought to be.

We notice that workmen are busy putting a composition roof upon Pense's block. The building is a very neat one, and becomes the street far more than those little, antiquated wooden concerns.

McKey & Bro. have made a pretty addition to the front of their store. All the wood work has been painted red, and that with the black window caps and sills, makes a tasty appearance. ANOTHER HORSE SHOW .- There is to be a horse show in Milwaukee on the 2d, 3d, 4th and 5th days of October next. Those who did not get in Janesville enough of this kind of entertainment, humbug, or whatever else they choose to regard it, can get a further supply at Milwaukee.

Than doest all things well.

Let it be calm and still, O God, And let the path my feet must trend go down Into the quiet vales of peace; and lef Sweet flowers of love apring up along the way, To make it bright and beautiful. And yet, My Pather, if my wayward heart would roam From its deep love and reverence for Thee And mid so much of surthly joy forgst What Thou hast done for me—forbid it, Lord. Thou knowest all things; I am weak, and blind; I cannot see—O guide me in the way That leads to Thee, and I will be content, E'en if the way be rough, and dark, and strange, And every flower I plack hide stinging thoras, And if the crosses I must lift and bear Be heavy burdens; for I know, O God,

My Life.

There have been times When life has been to me, all I could wish Of earthly joy, when all my heart's desire Was satisfied, and earth had nothing more To gain, which I could ask, or wish for here. And too, there have been times when I have walked Among the shadows, and when one by one, Each hope, and joy, and pleasure fled away, And only one bright star shone down on me. But when I saw the star, and knew its ray Came from thy tender, pittying heart of love, I howed, and worshiped; for I knew, O God, That Thou had'st forn the idels from my heart. Shut out the dazzling sunshine, so that I Could see how I had wandered far away, E'en to the borders of that dangerous path That leadeth down to sin, and endless death.

And so, I dare not ask for anything Of life, and love, and joy, lest they should prove A curse to me, and lead me for away From Thee, my Father, God; but only this: Do with me as it seemeth good to Thee, And blessed, blessed be Thy Holy name.

CORA MET. Emerald Grove, Wis.

The decision of Judge Nelson, at Coop erstown, (this day aunounced) having been circulated broadcast over the country, we deem it our duty to state that this decision of an inferior and petty court, extending its influence over only the southern district of New York, has been virtually annulled or reversed, so far as the Sloat Sewing Ma CHINE COMPANY is concerned, by the recent decision of the Hon. Chief Judge Dunlop, of the circuit court of the United States at Washington, which establishes clearly the fact that the Atkins & Felthousen patent is the only original and valid one upon which reliance can be placed or sewing machines manufactured in the United States.

Under this patent the Sloat sewing machine company are the only licensees, and consequently, despite the decision at Cooperstown, all other manufacturers are infringers according to the highest law of the land. This decision of Judge Nelson is already appealed from, even in the limited district it affects. GEO. B. SLOAT,

Pres't Sloat Sewing Machine Co. Philadelphia, Aug. 18, 1860. dawlt

It costs a million dollars per day to maintain the government of France-that is. about $9 a year for each person in the empire. The interest on the national debt is $112,000,000 annually. The army and navy come in for $93,000,000. Such a government ought to be very good.

Janesville Wholesale Market. Reported for the Janesville Gazette BUMP & GRAY. GRAIN AND PRODUCE DEALERS

JANESVILLE, SEPTEMBER 12, 1860. The past week has been a leasy one in the wheat market, receipts being larger and prices most of the time quite firm. Moralay marning the market opened firm and active at $3@90c for common shipping to choice milling spring, and a considerable amount sold early at that range, but after despatches were received from the lake sliger, quoting an advance there, buyers pitched in snew and prices soon advanced I@5c. Afternoon sales ranged at 92@94c for milling and 87@90c for shipping spring at which figures the market closed irm. Receipts in all 7,000 bushels.

Tuesday morning buyers were on the market bright all the choicest samples at extreme prices, 93@95c and even 95c being paid in some cases for strictly prime ed, at 89@01c, but on receipt of steamers news, which was unfavorable, they lowered their views 3@4c per bushel. Afternoon sales ranged at 89@92c for million and 25@88c for shipping spring, closing weak at these figures. Receipts during the day fully 8,000 bushels.

This morning the market opened very quiet at yes terday's closing figures, buyers seeming indisposed to opperate very largely before Lake Shore news-with fair receipts, however, they soon got warmed up, and early sales were made at a range of 86@90c for common to heat samples; but when the Lake Shore news was received showing a dult and declining market there buyers withdrew and would not pay over 80@89 for milling spring, and $2@85c for shipping, closing with fair demand at those figures. Receipts of coarse grains have been light during the week and prices remain at 37@33c per 60 lbs. for corn, and 15@17c for outs. No shipping demand for cats at over 15c per bushel. But-ter is scarce and good choice roll commands full quotations. Eggs in good supply at 6c cash and 7c in trade The latest advices from foreign markets is rather unfavorable to prices here, as the last stormer quotes the weather favorable to crops, and should the next steamer bring like news, it must depress our market consider that the "mill splitter."

The Excursion Train.-The excursion takin from this city to Madison consisted of seven well-filled passenger cars; one with a · mapany of 65 Wide Awakes from Delevan. A small number, about a dozen, came in from Mouroe this morning. With these exreprious, all the passengers were from Janeswills and vicinity. The Janesville Wide Awales numbered about 60.

We have found it! You will ask what have we found? If you had seen us, her evening, hipity hopitying along the He-walk on Milwaukee street, smoothing down the toe of our boot, and searching in the place where our big toe ought to be, have been light during the week and prices remain at von would imagine that we "had struck a 22@32c per 60 ibs. for corn, and 15@17c for cats. No tramp!" Not so, however; twas nothing shipping demand for oats at over lee per bushel. Butthore than a "gas fixture" sticking up a little less than a foot, which our boot came in contact with. Although the toe was driven back almost to the heel, we didn't mind the burt; all we cared for was the boot! So that you may be on your guard, and not lose a boot or shoe, we would inform our readers that the said "fixture" is right in front of Tailman's new block-in the place where the SIDEWALK ought to be.

We notice that workmen are busy patting a composition roof upon Pease's block. The building is a very neat one, and becomes the street far more than those little, antiquated wooden concerns.

McKey & Bro. have made a pretty addition to the front of their store. All the wood work has been painted red, and that with the black window caps and sills, makes a tasty appearance.

My Life.

Let it be calm and still, O God, And let the path my feet must trend go down Into the quiet vales of peace; and let Sweet flowers of love spring up along the way, To make it bright and beautiful. And yet. My Father, if my wayward heart would roam From its deep love and reverence for Thee And mid so much of earthly joy forget What Thou hast done for me-forbid it, Lord. Thou knowest all things; I am weak, and blind; I cannot see—0 guide me in the way That leads to Thee, and I will be content, E'en if the way be rough, and dark, and strange, And every flower I pluck hide stinging thorns, And if the crosses I must life and bear Be heavy burdens; for I know, O God. Then doest all things well.

There have been times When life has been to me, all I could wish Of earthly joy, when all my heart's desire Was satisfied, and earth had nothing more To gain, which I could ask, or wish for here. And, too, there have been times when I have walker Among the shadows, and when one by one. Each hope, and joy, and pleasure fied away, And only one bright star shone down on me. But when I saw the star, and knew its ray Came from thy tender, pittying heart of love, I bowed, and worshiped; for I knew, O God, That Thou had st torn the idols from my heart. Shut out the dazzling sunshine, so that I Could see how I had wandered far away, Fign to the borders of that dangerous path That leadeth down to sin, and endless death.

And so, I dare not ask for anything Of life, and love, and joy, lest they should prove A curse to me, and lead me far away From Thee, my Father, God; but only this: Do with me as it seemeth good to Thee, And blessed, blessed be Thy Holy name

The decision of Judge Nelson, at Cooperstown, (this day aunounced) having been circulated broadcast over the country, we deem it our duty to state that this decision coveral towns will be entitled to the following number of an inferior and petty court, extending its influence over only the southern district of New York, has been virtually annulled or reversed, so far as the SLOAT SEWING MA-CHINE COMPANY is concerned, by the recent decision of the Hon. Chief Judge Dunlop, of the circuit court of the United States at Washington, which establishes clearly the fact that the Atkins & Felthousen patent is the only original and valid one upon which reliance can be placed or sewing machines manufactured in the United States.

Under this patent the Sloat sewing machine company are the only licensees, and consequently, despite the decision at Cooperstown, all other manufacturers are infringers according to the highest law of the land. This decision of Judge Nelson is already appealed from, even in the limited district it affects. GEO. B. SLOAT,

Reported for the Janesville Gazette,

BUMP & GRAY. GRAIN AND PRODUCE DEALERS. JANESVILLE, SEPTEMBER 12, 1860.

The past week has been a busy one in the wheat mar-I see good from the omnibus to day, the first ket receipts being larger and prices most of the time and the seen on the streets quite firm. Monday morning the market opened firm and active at $35,500c for common shipping to choice milling spring, and a considerable amount sold early at that range, but after despatches were received from the ake shore, quoting an advance there, buyers pitched n nnew and prices soon advanced 3@5c. Afternoon sales ranged at 92@94c for milling and 87@90c for shipping spring, at which figures the market closed firm. Receipts in all 7,060 bushels. Tuesday morning buyers were on the market bright and early, all seeming anxions for a full share of the wheat at some price. The mills were nearly all represented, and owing to a better supply of water they took all the choicest samples at extreme prices, 93@95c and even 96c being paid in some cases for strictly, prime samples. Shippers also took hold freely, and a good deal went to warehouses, before despatches were received, at 896,91c, but on receipt of steamers news, which was unfavorable, they lowered their views 2@4c per PROFITS OF THE BUSINESS bushel. Afternoon sales ranged at 89 $92c for milling and 85@ 88c for shipping spring, closing weak at those figures. Receipts during the day fully 8,000 bushels. This morning the market opened very quiet at yeserday's closing figures, buyers seeming indisposed to opperate very largely before Lake Shore news-with fuir receipts, however, they soon got warmed up, and early sales were made at a range of 86@90c for common to best samples; but when the Lake Shore news was received showing a dull and declining market there, onyers withdrew and would not pay over 86@89 for milling spring, and 82@85c for shipping, closing with fair demand at those figures. Receipts of coarse grains ter is scarce and good choice roll commands full quotations. Eggs in good supply at 6c cash and 7c in trade. The latest advices from foreign markets is rather unfavorable to prices here, as the last stermer quotes the weather favorable to crops, and should the next steamer bring like news, it must depress our market consider Deuglas vs. Douglas and the Missouri Compromise.

From Dauglas' Speech in Springfield, Ill., 1850. From Douglas' Speech in Springfield, Ill., 1860.

The Missouri Compromise had its origin in the hearts of all patriotic men who desired to preserve and perpetuate the bissings of our glorious Union—on origin akin to that of the constitution of the United States, conceived in the same spirit of fraternal affection, and calculated to remove forever the only danger which threatens at some distant day, to sever the social bond of Union.—All the evidences of public opinion at that day seem to indicate that this compromise had become canoniced in the hearts of the American people as a sucred thing, which no rubitess hand twould ever be reckless enough to disturb.

From Douglas' Speech at Providence, Aug. 3, 1860. My friend over there—friend or enemy, as the case may be—wants to know something about the Missouri Compromise. [Cheers.] I have not the slightest objection to telling him all he desires to know upon that question. I BROUGHT IN THE BILL TO REPEAL THE MISSOURI RESTRICTION.

County Fair.

ly and Thursday next. We suppose the farmers and mechanics of Rock county feel interested enough in the prosperity of this society to give it their aid and encouragement. If they do not, they certainly ought to do so. The society is emphatically their institution, and it has won its high renown and dispensed its benefits heretofore through the support and approbation rendered by tention to it. Farmers and Mechanics of Rock county, your own interests will be promoted by restoring your society to its former pecuniary standing, and making its fairs progressive in excellence and benefits.

We are well aware that for the last two or three years the society has labored under difficulties arrising from a deficient treasury, but this fact so far from discouraging any present or future effort, ought to increase the zeal and labors of its real friends. The present year is unparalleled in a most abundant harvest; the soil has been almost three years ago settled ominously over all The officers of the society cannot, alone, make a good fair; the newspaper cannot do it; one or two men in a town cannot do it. To make such a fair as Rock county ought to have, requires a united effort;

None of the daily papers were issued, and the whole city gave appropriate expression to the terrible affliction visited upon it.

The Beaver Dam Democrat (Breckinridge) raises the name of Harrison C. Hobart as the national democratic candidate for congress in the third district. It thinks he can be elected if a proper effort is made. The position of Mr. Hobart was stated to us a day or two since by a leading Breckinridge man in the state to be, a supporter of Donglas for the benefit of Breckinridge!

Correspondence of the Janesville Gasette. WAUPUN, Sept. 11th, 1860. Editors of the Gazette-

Last Saturday was to be a great time among the "unterrified" democracy at this place. "Our Larrabee" was to speak here at 2 o'clock, the whippersin were straining every nerve to get up a large and enthusiastic meeting. At the appointed time the meeting was called to order; there were fifty-seven persons present, all told; out of that number fifteen were republicans and ten boys. The "Little Joker" saw it was a failure, but never at a loss to creep out, and no hole too small for him to get through, he informed his audience that he had got a telegraphic despatch announcing that a sad accident had occurred on the lake that morning. He said it was no time for making a political speech—he did not think it would be proper for him to do so, and, feeling as he did, he could not make a speech He would, therefore, offer a resolution, and hoped the meeting would concur in it-Resolved, That in view of the dreadful calamity which has fallen in our midst, and as a mark of respect and sympathy with the that bill. We knew at the time that the surviving friends, this meeting do adjourn.

Let us look at the "Little Joker's" sympathy. The same evening he had an appointment to speak at Fox Lake; he went ate bill and supporting that of the house, hours long. He forgot his sympathy and to expose the falsehood, from which we now " What hypocrisy."

I must not forget to tell you that the republicans in this vicinity are up and dressed, and are fully determined to redeem the 3d congressional district. Last Saturday the wide-awake club of this place received an invitation to visit Burnett Corners, about ten miles distant, and on acceptance of the invitation, that evening about forty (half the club) got ready and started under command of Capt. Heg for the corners. We got there about 8 o'clock and were conducted to the meeting, and enthusiastically greeted with three cheers from the Beaver Dam wideawakes. After we get seated and order was restored, the audience was treated to short but telling speeches from the Hon. A. A. Wilson, one of the republican electors of our sister state of Minnesota, who made an able and eloquent address; he was followed by Judge Sloan, our noble standard bearer in this district, in a masterly style of commanding eloquence. Then followed the able speeches of the Hon. C. H. Billinghurst and Major Heg, all of which were well received and loudly applauded.

About half past 10 o'clock the meeting adjourned with three rousing cheers for Lincoln, Hamlin and Sloan. The wideawakes then paraded the streets with lighted torches till after 11 o'clock, when they started for home, every man feeling fully The annual fair of the Rock County Ag- | determined to do all he could to redeem the ricultural Society and Mechanics' Institute | third congressional district. I never attendwill be held in this city on Tuesday, Wednes- ed a more enthusiastic impromptu gathering of the people; the meeting house wa crowded to almost suffocation.

> We hear that it is asserted about our streets that the Chicago Tribune in giving a report of the loss of the Lady Elgin asserted that the excursionists were principally democrats and Irishmen, and spoke disparagingly of the character of that fearful calamity on that account. To show our citizens precisely what the Tribune did say, we annex all that relates to the character or ed to meet an appalling death:

Occasion of the Excursion,-The Union Guards of Milwaukee, not long since were disarmed and disbanded by the Governor of the state for some action held to be in derogation of the sovereignty of Wisconsin. We do not remember the precise cause; marvelously prolific, and the cloud which but believe it to have been partly politicala series of resolutions in relation to the conflict between Wisconsin and the United States, in the Booth case, in which the right of the Governor to order them out for the enforcement of the decisions of Wisconsin courts, was denied.

After the disarming, they continued their organization and bought arms on their private account. In doing this, they had incurred a considerable debt, and to pay this off by an excursion, the profits of which were to go to the company, was the main object in view. The captain of the Guards was a candidate for treasurer in Milwaukee, and to get his friends together on the trip and make strength for himself, was a prom-ineut though not leading idea. Hence most of the excursionists were of the democratic party; hence, as the Guards were an Irish company, it happens that a large majority of those who set out, were of that nationality. This explanation is necessary to account for the preponderence of Irish names in the lists of "lost" and "saved" printed

Any allusion to politics in this calamity was unnecessary and out of place, but we fail to see in the allusion any such spirit as is charged upon the Tribune. If we did, we should denounce the offence as heartily as those who are charging it upon the Tribune. We are not prepared to believe human nature is so deprayed as to attempt to find in the loss of two or three hundred human beings, friends as well as strangers, embracing a large number of women and children, and involving every social and house hold relation, any relief in the political character of the ill-fated victims; or if such depravity exists, that the possessor is reckless enough to give publicity to it.

His prospects are altogether the best in New York, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Rhode Island, Illinois, Wisconsin, New Jersey, California and Oregon, and with a reasonable effort he will sweep Iowa. Minnesota, Ohio and Connecticut."

Can audacity go farther? The faith of the followers of Mahomet sinks into downright infidelity in comparison with the in fatuation of the followers of the yet motherless candidate for the presidency.

From the Mineral Point Tribune. Mr. Hamlin and the Homestead.

We have noticed on several occasions the assertion in the Home Intelligencer that Mr. Hamlin was opposed to the homestead bill, and on one occasion, the Intelligencer said that almost the last vote Mr. Hamlin cast in the United States senate was against statement of the Intelligencer was false, for we happened to be in the senate chamber on one occasion when Mr. Hamlin defined his position on that bill-opposing the senthere and found the meeting a little larger, but we have preferred to let the matter rest and was "betrayed" into a speech four until we could refer directly to the records hours long. He forgot his sympathy and propose to show not only how Mr. Hamlin did vote, but how Mr. Douglas did'nt vote on that measure.

The reader will bear in mind that the house bill was far more liberal to the settler all loaded heavy. than that of the senate—the former making liberal provisions for giving to actual settlers homesteads from the public domain. while the latter contained provisions that rendered it far less beneficial to the poor man, and almost equivalent to no homestead bill at all.

We find in the appendix to the Congressional Globe, part 2, page 1074, February 17, that Mr. Wade moved to postpone prior orders, and take up the house homestead bill. On this motion Mr. Hamlin voted Yea; Mr. Douglas did not vote at all!

On the same day (page 1076) on a motion to keep the homestead bill before the senate, Mr. Hamlin voted yea; but where was Douglas?

Again, on the same page, on motion to discuss the consular and diplomatic bill, instead of the homestead, Mr. Hamlin voted ay; Douglas not voting. On page 1143, is recorded a motion to take up the homstead bill, when Mr. Hamlin voted yea; Douglas did not vote. On the 25th of February, (page 1292) Mr. Doolittle of Wisconsin, moved to postpone the bill for the acquisition of Cuba, and take up the homestead bill. On this motion Mr. Hamlin voted yea, and Mr. preferred "Niggers for the Niggerless" to Land to the Landless."

April 3d, (page 1608) on motion to postpone the senate bill and take up that of the quired for perfecting the system of artillery house, Mr. Hamlin voted yea, but no vote which he has been the means of introducfrom Mr. Douglas.

I am perfectly willing they should do so; but they tell us, and they tell us frankly, that it is not a homestead bill, and it is not. Now, sir, it being no homestead bill, I will not vote for it. I voted to substitute the house bill for this bill : but those who have the control of the matter have put it in a position which is unjust. There are things in that bill for which I cannot vote. There are things that ought to go into it to make it justifiable, to enable me to give it my vote. For these reasons, I shall vote against it." And he did vote against it, while those republicans who voted for it did so under protest.

YOUNG AMERICA FOREVER!

"Come one, come all, this Rock shall fly From its firm base, as soon as I."

UCH were the stiring words of James Fity James to the bold chieftein, Rhoderick Dhu, in the Mountain asses of Scotland, and now MOSES HARSH,

Original Young America CLOTHING HOUSE,

Petty $lop Shops in the land. From the fact that the Original

Young America Ciothing House has held for the last EIGHT YEARS the conceded reputation of being the best and largest, and, above all, the Cheapest Establishment of its kind in the state. That during that time other Clothing Stores have attempted to compete with it in this city, and one after another have busted. The promietor of the Oldest Clothing House in the City feels that he has now the right to say it is as firmly fixed as a rock and as immovable as the overlasting hills lie knows the truth of what he mys. The People of Rock County are his witnesses. They will not lie; nor is he under the necessity of attempting to enforce A BOGUS LAW upon them, to get them to purchase their Fall and Winter Clothing from him. He has just returned from the east, where Business Coats, be has purchased the

If to "mitigate orime and alleviate the sufferings of mankind generally," by high sounding pretenses is a virtue, then the proprietor of the Original Young America Clothing House does not claim that virtue. He is ready to do what he promises, The Propie Know Ir, and the thousands who have purchased, for years, their Clothing from him, from the best quality of

The county committee would recommend that the delegates to this convention be chosen in the different towns and wards on Saturday, the Sth of September, at 2 o'clock P. M., at the place of holding the last annual town meeting, where a different time is not designated by the proper town committees.

The question of a new apportionment to correct the inequalities of former representations was discussed by the committee; but in view of the difficulty of making any changes without full returns of the census Just taken, it is deemed advisable to adopt the apportionment of the last convention as likely to lead to less complaint than a partial change or an entire change made without the necessary information.

B. E. HALK, Chaleman, CHARLES HOLT, Secretary.

POSTPONEMENT. To allow the delegates and other republicans of Rock county interested in this convention an apportunity to attend the meeting at Madison on the 12th, this convention has been postponed until THURSDAY, the 18th day of September lust. B. E. HALE, Chairman. Sept. 3, 1800. CHAS. HOLT, Secretary. Assembly District Convention.

The Republicans of Assembly District No. 5 will meet In convention by their delegates on SATURDAY, Oc-to represent mid district in the next legeslature. The esveral towns will be entitled to the following mamber Club Meeting. * A meeting of the Janesville City Republican Club will be held at the Court Room TO MORROW EVENING.

Myron H. Orton of Madison has accepted an invitation to be present and address the meeting. Look out for tall speaking.

COUNTY CONVENTION .- The republican convention to nominate county officiers will be held at the court room to-morrow. THE EXCURSION TRAIN.-The excursion train from this city to Madison consisted of seven well-filled passenger cars; one with a company of 65 Wide Awakes from Delevan. A small number, about a dozen, came in from Monroe this morning. With these exceptions, all the passengers were from Janesville and vicinity. The Janesville Wide Awakes numbered about 60.

HAMI IN AND THE HOMESTRAD LAW.-We invite the attention of the Democrat to the article we copy from the Mineral Point Tribune.

GRAIN RECEIPTS AT BUFFALO.—The rereipts of grain of all kinds at Buffalo dur ing the month of August was 16,683,607

Allow me to close with an incident-a republican would say, an accident: As I rode up from the fair grounds yesterday, in a promisenous crowd, a gentleman desired a political count. It resulted 21 for Douglas, 4 for Lincoln, 2 for Breckingidge, As I stepped from the omnibus to day, the first drunken man I have seen on the streets during the fair, was shouting at the top of his voice for Lincoln, the "rail splitter." FRANK.

There were probably several other "promischous" crowds at the horse show where Such a vote is very apt to be taken and published where a parely accidental (!) assemblage favors a result in accordance with the predilections of the reporter.

As to the other "incident," the correspondent of the Herald must have been a recluse to have seen only one drunken man during the fair, and that man hurraling for Lincoln. We saw a good deal of enthusisame influence which induced the outbreak for the "rail-splitter."

We have found it! You will ask what have we found? If you had seen us, last evening, hipity hopitying along the side-walk on Milwankee street, smoothing buyers withdrew and would not pay over 80@89 for down the toe of our boot, and searching in the place where our big toe ought to be, have been light during the week and prices remain at you would imagine that we "had struck a 32@33c per 60 lbs. for corn, and 15@17c for cars. No strong!" Not so, however; 'twas nothing shipping demand for eats at over 15c per bushel. Butmore than a "gas fixture" sticking up a little less than a foot, ch our boot came in contact with. Although the too was driven back almost to the heel, we didn't mind the kurt; all we cared for was the boot! So that you may be on your guard, and not lose a boot or shoe, we would inform our readers that the said "fixture" is right in front of Tallman's new block-in the place where the SIDEWALK ought to be.

Among those who left this city today for Madison, we noticed Senator Doo.

We notice that workmen are busy putting a composition roof upon Pease's block. The building is a very nent one, and becomes the street far more than those little, antiquated wooden concerns.

McKey & Bro. have made a pretty addition to the front of their store. All the wood work has been painted red, and that with the black window caps and sills, makes a tasty appearance.

ANOTHER HORSE Show,-There is to be a horse show in Milwankee on the 2d. 3d. 4th and 5th days of October next. Those who did not get in Janesville enough of this kind of entertainment, humbig, or whatever else they choose to regard it, can get a further supply at Milwaukee.

My Life.

And let the path my feet must tread go down

Let it be calm and still, O God.

Into the quiet tales of peace; and lef-Sweet flowers of love spring up along the way, To make it bright and beautiful. And yet. My Father, if my wayward heart would rosm From its deep love and reverence for Thee And mid so much of garthly joy forget What Thou hast done for me-forbid it, Lord. Thou knowest all things; I am weak, and blind; I cannot see-- 0 guide me in the way That leads to Thee, and I will be content, K'en if the way be rough, and dark, and strange, And every flower I pluck hide stinging thorus, And if the crosses I must lift and bear Be heavy burdens; for I know, O God, Then doest all things well.

There have been times When life has been to me, all I could wish Of earthly joy, when all my heart's desire Was satisfied, and earth had nothing more To gain, which I could ask, or wish for here. And, too, there have been times when I have walked Among the shadows, and when one by one, Each hope, and joy, and pleasure fied away, And only one bright star shone down on me. But when I saw the star, and knew its ray Came from thy tender, pittying heart of love, I bowed, and worshiped; for I knew, O God, That Thou had'et torn the idols from my heart. Shut out the dazzling sunshine, so that I Could see how I had wandered far away, E'en to the borders of that dangerous path That leadeth down to sin, and endless death.

And so, I dere not ask for anything Of life, and love, and Joy, lest they should prove A curse to me, and lead me far away From Thee, my Father, God; but only this: Do with me as it seemeth good to Thee, And blessed be Thy Holy name. CORA MOY.

The decision of Judge Nelson, at Coop erstown, (this day aunounced) having been circulated broadcast over the country, we deem it our duty to state that this decision of an inferior and petty court, extending its influence over only the southern district of New York, has been virtually annulled or reversed, so far as the Sloat Sewing Ma-CHINE COMPANY is concerned, by the recent decision of the Hon. Chief Judge Dunlop, of the circuit court of the United States at Washington, which establishes clearly the fact that the Atkins & Felthousen patent is the only original and valid one upon which reliance can be placed or sewing machines manufactured in the United States.

Under this patent the Sloat sewing machine company are the only licensees, and consequently, despite the decision at Cooperstown, all other manufacturers are infringers according to the highest law of the land. This decision of Judge Nelson is already appealed from, even in the limited district it affects. GEO. B. SLOAT, Pres't Sloat Sewing Machine Co.

It costs a million dollars per day to maintain the government of France—that is, about $9 a year for each person in the empire. The interest on the national debt is $112,000,000 annually. The army and navy come in for $93,000,000. Such a government ought to be very good.

Janesville Wholesale Market. Reported for the Janesville Gazette, BUMP & GRAY. GRAIN AND PRODUCE DEALERS.

JANESVILLE, SEPTEMBER 12, 1860. The past week has been a busy one in the wheat market receipts being larger and prices most of the time quite firm. Monday morning the market opened firm and active at 83@90c for common shipping to choice milling apring, and a considerable amount sold early at that range, but after despatches were received from the take shore, quoting an advance there, buyers pitched in snew and prices soon advanced I@6c. Afternoon sales ranged at 92@94c for initing and 87@90c for Douglasism and democracy predominated shipping spring, at which figures the market closed firm. Receipts in all 7,000 bushels. Tuesday morning buyers were on the market bright and early, all seeming anxious for a full share of the wheat at some price. The mills were nearly all represented, and owing to a better supply of water they took all the choicest samples at extreme prices, 93@95c and even 96c being paid in some cases for strictly prime samples. Shippers also took hold freely, and a good deal went to warehouses, before despatches were received, at 82@91c, but on receipt of steamers news, which was unfavorable, they lowered their views 3@4c per hushel Afternoon soles ranged at 89@92c for milling asm for Douglas that was inspired by the land 85@88c for shipping spring, closing weak at those figures Receipts during the day fally 8,000 bushels.

This morning the market opened very quiet at yesterday's closing figures, buyers seeming indisposed to opperate very largely before Lake Shore news-with fair receipts, however, they soon got warmed up, and early anies were made at a range of 86/000c for common to best samples; but when the Lake Shore news was received showing a dult and declining market there, milling spring, and $2@85c for shipping, closing with ter is scarce and good choice roll commands full quotations. Eggs in good supply at 5c cash and 7c in trade.

The intest advices from foreign markets is rather unfavorable to prices here, as the last atermer quotes the reather favorable to crops, and should the next steamer bring like news, it must dopress our market consider
